

Katie and Lachie

Katie and I met 15 years ago when we were in secondary school through a mutual friend. The best memories of our relationship are from the time we spent living in Shanghai, where we were for my work. Ironically it was the first time we had lived together. Following China, I couldn't wait to get home and propose, once we were back with all of our family and friends.

Never had she looked so

Breathtakingly beautiful

Rave review

Over the Top Events were fantastic and we couldn't have pulled the day together without them. They were so approachable and helpful and definitely the right people for the job; they took our vision of being married on the farm and made it a reality. They went above and beyond!

One piece of advice

I think the best advice we got was to not sweat the small stuff. It can be stressful leading up to the day worrying about every minor detail, but try to remember the reason behind it all. As long as you are both there, you have good food, drinks and music; you are set for an unforgettable day.
